Prepare for the Fall HS Soccer Season!!

This is not a try-out but simply a soccer camp to improve players and prepare them for the Fall season. Because of the new coaching staff, this camp will be great chance for the coaches to see incoming players for the first time. The coaches are very qualified and have international playing and coaching experience, some at professional level.

Areas of Emphasis:

Ball Mastery - cutting and turning - first touch control - passing and moving

1 v 1 play - finishing on goal - combinations - defense - 11 on 11 tactics

Coaching Staff at the Laker Soccer Camp (+ Coach Whitehead)

EDI BURO: Originally from Bosnia and has lived in Minnesota since 8th grade where he played 5 years Varsity for St. Louis Park. Graduated from Hamline University. Played for several clubs in Europe before playing with Minnesota United for 2 years in the NASL. Has coached extensively in club and high school soccer. A high energy player and a high energy coach!

IBEE IBRAHIM: Originally from Ethiopia but went to high school in Richfield. Ibee was part of the elite IMG Academy in Florida and played extensively for the United States U-17 and U-120 team before being drafted by the FC Dallas of the MLS. He has also played with Toronto FC, the Minnesota United and in Finland. Ibee has coached extensively in club, Coerver and high school soccer.

CHUCK KORPI (Goalkeepers): Chuck was an accomplished Goalie and now is an accomplished Goalie Coach. He has coached hundreds of Goalies and at dozens of clinics for the past 15-20 years. Chuck has coached for Burnsville Fire, at Mankato State and DCTS, and has coached at the high school level. Chuck is a fun coach who gets Goalies to work hard on their game.
